Tableware 100% natural – made from pure biocircular plastic and wood fibers

Koziol tableware is made of biocircular plastic and FSC-certified wood. The circular plastic is obtained exclusively from used sunflower and rapeseed oil from industry and catering. No additional farmland is needed. The added wood fibers are obtained from trees that are left over from forest maintenance and from paper production residues. All wood comes from European cultivation and is FSC certified. The material is free of melamine, BPA and bamboo, food safe and fully recyclable. They are also dishwasher safe. Design and production in Germany.
